A GUILTY CONSCIENCE.

A few days since the residence of Mr. Hendrickson, No. 21 Fort Greene place, Brooklyn, was robbed of some diamond jewelry. A son of Mr. Hendrickson's disappeared about the same time, but he did not condisappeared about the same time, but he did not con-nect him with the robbery. At a late hour on Satur-day night the young man walked into the Myrtic avenue station, and suid he wished to give himself up and be punished for a robbery. The sergeant inquired who he had robbed, and he then explained that he had robbed his parents. The young man, according to his request, was detained for the night, but will, no dequt, he released, as his parents are highly respect-able and in comfortable circumstances. OUR COMPLAINT BOOK.

DANGEROUS TO LIFE AND TRAVEL. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

The wooden pavement opposite my house, in Ninth street, just east of Third avenue, is in a shameful condition, full of holes and daily getting worse. As it en-dangers life it needs attention at once. OLD TAXPAYER.

NOT CLEANED FOR SIX MONTHS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-I will thank you to call attention to the condition of Liberty place, as I do not think it has been cleaned in six months. I have written to the Street Cleaning Department, but no notice has been taken of my complaint.

MONTGOMERY & C.

A SIX MONTHS' NUISANCE. To the Editor of the Herald:—
An old subscriber of more than forty years would An old subscriper of more taxa forcy personal like to ask if the parties building in Forty-second street, north side, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, cannot be compelled to remove the pite of sand or dirt which has choked us since last March.

C. E. M.

A LITTLE TOO HIGH. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-Please call attention to the sidewalk in front of the building called the Marahall Building, put up in Fitteenth street, near Sixth avenue. The sidewalk in front of this new structure is about four inches higher than it is on either side, and is very dangerous to pedestrians by day and night, but especially at night.

SIDEWALK.

CAPTAIN MOUNT'S ORDERLY PRECINCY. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :--Forty-dith street, between Second and Third avemes, is overrue at night with loalers and all kinds of houses and insult the occupants. Is there no rem-edy? The policemen are never seen, although my neighbors and myself have made frequent complaints at HEADQUARTERS,

UNFIT FOR TRAVEL TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-Allow me to remind the Street Commissioners that, within the city limits, the road known as the Williams-bridge road is unfit for travel. Indeed, on a dark night one passes over the uneven and stony way at the risk of his life. May I suggest that it receive attention before the tearing down of the reservoir on Fifth avenue and Forty-second street?

KINGSBRIDGE,

MODEL STREET SWEEPERS. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-About two weeks ago a party of eight or ten sweepers promenaded through our street (127th), while two or three protended to sweep the gutters, which, how-ever, the servants sweep clean about six feet from the curb. The central, dirty part, they did not touch. It would be amusing to see how they avoid work did it not cost so much. About a week since I saw a similar gang sweep the clean side of East Thirty-second street. PATIENUE.

INFORMATION WANTED. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-We, the undersigned owners and tenants on 124th street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, would like to while? It is now some three months since anything has been done by the department on that block.

G. P. NELSON,
B. F. RAYNN,
G. VAN REED,
H. N. SHERWOOD,
F. A. COLLINS.

A WORD IN TIME.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-Cannot something be done to remove the oil establishment situated in West Thirty-third street, below Touth avenue, in the heart of tenements and rics. We are fearful of the consequences should a fire break out. It it occurred in the night it would, without doubt, be attended with great loss of life. During the late conflagration which was so near the neighbors in the vicinity were in great lear of this establishment taking fre. If such had been the case the spread of the flames would have been fearful. NEIGHBOR.

INJURIOUS TO PROPERTY. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-I wish to call attention to the condition of Eisvanth street, between First and Second avenues. I am atax-payer on the block, and I am not able to let my premises on account of the wagons and coal boxes from one end of it to the other, particularly on the south side. I would also call attention to the idle loafers who infest the block. They are a perfect nuisance. Something ought to be done to clear the block of such obstacles, for Kieventh street, between First and Second ave-nues, pays taxes as well as the block between Second and Third avonues.

SUPPRESS THIS NUISANCE. By putting my complaint before the public you will confer a favor on many business gentlemen in Leonard street. For the past two years we have been very much annoyed by a very disagreeable odor arming from a second class lodging house, No. 42 Leonard street, located in the heart of one of New York's best business streets. We have already complained to the Board of Health, and several times at the police station, but as yet have received no relief. What can we do next? Is there any higher official we can appeal to?

WHEN TO PAVE THE STREETS.

To THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—

For the past menth or more the business men of New York have been very much hampered in the shipment of goods, owing to the system of paving adopted by the contractors. Day after day they blockade the business streets, causing great delay to draymen and pedestrians. There is an easy remedy for this which is nothing new, having been practised abroad for years. It is this:—Let them do their paving during the night using calcium lights to work by. They will progress much faster and cheaper, and to a great degree deaway with the blockading of streets.

RAPID TRANSIT TO THE PARK.

To the Editor of the Herald:—
It has occurred to me that the accommodation afforded to the pleasure seeking portion of the public by the New York Elevated Railroad Company is entirely inadequate, considering the enormous privileges. tirely inadequate, considering the enormous privileges the company enjoys. The last train leaves Flity-ning street (going south) at twelve minutes past seven in the evening, just about the time that very large numbers of people would be starting for a promenade in our beautiful Central Park these bright moonlight evenings. Suppess I live in Jersey City, Brooklyn or Staten Island, and like thousands of poor people, have no other time but evenings to visit Central Park. We are obliged to forego that pleasure or get on one of the many horse car lines and poke along for an hour or more before it can be reached.

THE WORST IN THE WORLD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

We have written to the Board of Health and to the we have written to be sent at the sent at the fearful state of Mulberry street, between Canal and Park streets, but no attention has been paid to it, of course. What can we do to have that street cleaned? We are setually sick with the horrible stench arising from the pools of black liquid filling part of the gauters, mixed with the gauser discharged of the gutters, mixed with the gases discharged by the garbage and refuse of all decriptions which are scattered on the street and which

EIGHTH AVENUE OBSTRUCTION.

In answer to "Resident's" complaint, in regard to obstructions in Eightn avenue, I think he is (uniatontionally) unjust to the Municipal Gaslight Company. The company contracted for the laying of the pipe a long white ago, but the contractor has miscalculated his time for reacting Eighth avenue, and allowed the pipe to be placed there before being actually required. I was desirious of using the gas, and of tained the information in answer to my complaint agarding the delay in serving me.
